I think that they could well have applied for sanction of funds by telegraph or otherwise before giving the 'Asrama' to this Guru, if they had a mind to do so. Mr. D. Thomas Rao who is interested in this matter as a disciple has seen this person sent Guru & says that he is deserving of the position in every way. The only point which causes any suspicion is that he happens to be a brother of the late Swami, and the procedure of appointing members of the same family makes it appear as though the office were regarded as a hereditary one.

I suppose we have however no alternative now but to recognise the succession, accepting it as a settled fact.

Submitted to His Highness.

In continuation of my note No.736 dated 21st October 1912, reporting the demise of His Holiness the Swami of Sri Raghavendra Swami Matt at Nanjangud, I submit for approval the draft of an order recognizing the succession of Vedamurti Krishnachar (a brother of the late Swami) to the Gurushipp of the Matt under the titular name of Srimat Susilendra Tirtha Sripadangalavaroo.

2. The Sub-Division Officer of Nanjangud reports that the nominee is a learned man and beloved by the people and that so far as his knowledge goes reported to be a fit person to succeed to the place. He is 44 years old.

3. It may be noted however that the previous sanction of Government was not obtained before the 'Asrama' was given to the nominee by the deceased Guru. The First Councillor points this out and also draws attention to the relationship of the new Swamigalau to his predecessor. But as the former's fitness is admitted and testified to by such a disciple as Mr. D. Shama Rao, it seems to him and me that the succession may be recognized.
